Educators MEP Staff Community Support Groups Service Providers	Educators, school support staff and service providers are often the first individuals a student and/or family comes out to as undocumented. Moreover, they are often the first ones to witness the impact of increased enforcement measures on students and their families. It's critically important that educators, school support staff and service providers know the tools and resources available to help protect and prepare youth and families for an Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) raid. Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Facts about Undocumented Youth</li> <li>● Facts about undocumented students and unaccompanied children</li> <li>● Children Seeking Refuge in the United States</li> <li>● Educator's FAQ about immigration raids</li> <li>● Tools to support and protect students and their families</li> <li>● Know your rights Information for students and families</li> <li>● Raid Info and Tools</li> <li>● Resources for unaccompanied children</li> <li>● Process at the U.S. border</li> <li>● Connect students and families with resources</li> <li>● Legal aid organizations</li> <li>● Additional resources</li> <li>● Stay connected and informed</li> </ul>	http://www.aft.org/sites/default/files/im_uac-educators-guide_2016.pdf  Source: The New York Immigration Coalition	Mostly English  Certain parts are in Spanish
